MANY FREAK TRICKS WHEN CLOCK MOVES UP

Everybody to Forget Change and Business Will Go On as Usual.

Old Father Time will have to take a little quick step Saturday night, March 30, to cover the chasm of one hour and go forward in his movements to catch up with all the old clocks and watches in America.

There are plenty of bells in town—firebells, churchbells and other kinds of bells—but there are only two street clocks left in Chattanooga, and it is by these two clocks that the Chattanoogaans going to and from their work day by day set their watches.

One of these clocks is located in front of Fischer Bros. at the corner of Eighth and Market streets, and has been on duty now for something like forty years. When this old clock reaches the hour of midnight on March 30 it will be moved forward one hour in accordance with the daylight saving movement, and Easter morning of 1918 will be announced one hour ahead of itself. In other words, when the policeman makes his hourly round up and down Market street, when he passes Fischer's clock at 12 o'clock and goes to the next corner to open the little telephone box and make his report he will look up at the clock at Ninth and Market, in front of the Saul Jewelry store, and see that it isn't 12 o'clock at all, but 1 o'clock.

Promptly at midnight, when the orchestras at the different ballrooms are playing "Home, Sweet Home," these two street clocks will be changed. Someone will be designated to stay downtown a little bit later on Saturday night for the special purpose of arranging for an extra hour of daylight the next morning. The night watchmen, or perhaps some of the employees of these stores, will be designated to move the Chattanooga time up one hour. They will be instructed to climb the ladder when the hands reach 12 and move them around to 1.

Just suppose a man should be standing on the street corner waiting for a car a few minutes before 12 o'clock, and his hat should blow off and start rolling down Market street, and he started after it and recovered his hat several minutes later. He walks back to the corner and in the meantime the man has been up the ladder and changed the clock finds that it took him an hour to recover his hat. "Well," he would say, "I guess I'll have to wait right here for the owl car which usually goes out of the street car barn at 1:30."

Again, suppose a young man who has taken his best girl to a dance and promised her mother that they would be home a little after 12, should leave the ballroom floor promptly at 12 o'clock with his fair lady, and as they pass down Market street in an automobile he glances up at the "old standby" and finds he is taking his best girl home an hour later than he should.

Everybody must accept the time on the

SYRUP OF FIGS FOR CROSS, SICK FEVERISH CHILD

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath hot and stomach sour?

Harmless "fruit laxative" best to clean tender liver and bowels.

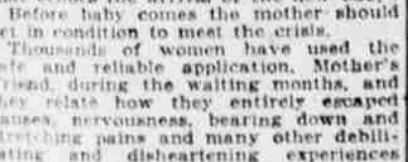

Mothers can rest easy, after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile, and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it cannot cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach ache, bad breathe, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—(Adv.)

Awaiting The Joyful Sound

The Wonderful Music That Bursts Forth When The Stork Arrives.

Who can forget that little brassy cry that echoes the arrival of the new baby? Before baby comes the mother should get in condition to meet the crisis. Thousands of women have used the safe, reliable application, Mother's Friend, during the waiting months, and they relate how they entirely escaped nausea, nervousness, bearing down and stretching pains and many other debilitating and disheartening experiences which so try the mother for the greatest time in a woman's life.

Mother's Friend is a wonderful help to nature in relieving strain and distress brought about by expanding muscles. The nerves, too, will be calm, making the period one of cheerful days and restful nights. The breasts are kept in good condition and the abdominal muscles relax with ease when baby is born.

Mother's Friend makes it possible for the expectant mother herself to actually aid nature in the glorious work to be performed, and no woman should neglect or fail to give nature a helping hand. It will mean infinitely less pain at the crisis. Mother's Friend is for external use only. It is absolutely safe and wonderfully effective. It is prepared by the Bradford Regular Co., K-174 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write them for their "Mother's Friend Book," so valuable to expectant mothers.

Secure a bottle of this famous remedy, which has been used by women with the greatest success for over half a century, from the druggist today, and thus fortify yourself against pain and discomfort.—(Adv.)

YOUNG BRIDE GAINS 17-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER

It must be a bit disconcerting for a 19-year-old bride to have a 17-year-old young lady call her "Mother!" This is the relationship into which Mrs. R. A. McDermid, an American girl, stepped when she became the wife of a wealthy Vladivostok merchant. Now she's come to the United States to get acquainted with her daughter, who is attending school at Lincoln, Neb., as well as her two sons, 15 and 13, who are at Columbus, O.

face of these two street clocks, even though they know they are "fibbing" as badly as the clocks whose hands move the wrong way when it's time for a girl's bead to say goodbye.

However, there is one thing that won't be late Easter Sunday, and that is the Goddess of the Morn. She will get up as usual, but will be received by the people of America an hour earlier.

Those who have been used to getting up late on Sunday morning will get up an hour earlier, and some of the pretty maidens who have been unable to get ready in time for Sunday school may have an opportunity to get to church on time.

One of the greatest things that will be derived from the new measure is that it will give the business men who go home at this season of the year and work in their gardens before supper an hour more work. Instead of going home at 6 he will go home at 5, and will work from 5 to 7 in his garden. The housewife will have breakfast, dinner and supper an hour earlier.

The Chattanooga Railway and Light company will not make any changes in the schedule of the running of the street cars Saturday night or Sunday morning. Cars that leave Market street at 12 o'clock and are due back in town at 1 o'clock will get back at 2 o'clock, or 1 o'clock by the old time. The owl car which usually goes out at 1:30 will go out at 2:30 by the new time and will get back at 3:30.

By Monday morning, April 2, the clocks all over the city will all be set up and the time will have been adjusted all over the United States. It has been suggested that those having watches set their watches up one hour when they retire Saturday night, and when they wake up Sunday morning they will be correct.

PROTECTION PROPERTY RIGHTS OF SOLDIERS

Courts Authorized to Appoint Counsel to Represent Interests of Absentees.

Soldiers and sailors will be protected from undue hardship, due to their inability to bring or defend law suits and attend to their business obligations of property rights, during their absence in military service, according to an act recently passed by congress.

This act provides for the protection of soldier or sailor who owes money on a note, or who has bought or leased lands, tools, or furniture on the installment. It also protects him from foreclosure, account nonpayment on his home, where same has been mortgaged. He is given protection if he has started a homestead, or mining claim, and many other protections of property interests during his service in the present war.

If, in these or any other ways, he may suffer hardships, the object of this act is to give protection. The act provides that upon notice by some friend or relative of the soldier or sailor of some undue hardship being brought against him, in suit, or otherwise, that the nearest court be notified promptly, and the court will make prompt inquiries into the merits of the case, and if the case merits it, the court will appoint an attorney to represent the soldier or sailor in the law suit. A like provision is made in event the soldier or sailor is inducted into service while a suit is pending.

Copies of the act have been sent out to 20,000 lawyers, to all superior courts, and to all local bar, and copies placed in the hands of all magistrates.

Conscientious Objectors To Be Non-Combative

Washington, March 21.—An executive order issued today by President Wilson provides that all conscientious objectors to the selective draft shall be given noncombatant service. The non-combatant branches outlined by the president include the medical corps, quartermaster corps and the engineer service.

It is provided that so far as may be feasible assignments of objectors to non-combatant service will be restricted to the several detachments and units of the medical department unless request is made for assignment to other branches of non-combatant service.

Best Medicine for Constipation, Mrs. Charles Crim, Charleston, Ill., states that Chamberlain's Tablets are the best medicine for constipation that she has ever used. There are hundreds of others who are of the same opinion. These tablets are easy to take and most agreeable in effect.—(Adv.)
